Charles Dickens' Oliver Twist for Kids

Charles Dickens' Oliver Twist, a 19th-century British novel, follows the life of an orphan named Oliver Twist. Written by Charles Dickens, Oliver Twist is notable for its strong moral and social commentary on the Victorian era, its vivid and lifelike characters, and its poignant portrayal of poverty and hardship. The novel satirises the hypocrisies of his time, including child labour, the recruitment of children as criminals, and the forced labour of the poor in workhouses. It also explores the themes of love, family, and the consequences of自私 and greed.
